The Hanscom Direct Connect Certificate rate is based on the Federal Reserve Bank's Federal Funds Target Rate (FFTR). When the Fed Funds rate changes, the credit union will make the new rate effective on your account within or on the second business day after the announcement. The dividend rate is the FFTR and plus/minus percentage (basis points) determined by the term of the account. Refer to the credit union's official rate sheet for specific dividend rate information. This account will automatically renew at maturity unless we receive written notice from you within the grace period mentioned below. (Note: Upon the automatic renewal of your Hanscom Direct Connect Certificate, your account will automatically renew into a Hanscom Direct Connect Certificate of the same term at the rate in effect on the maturity date; however, if that term is not available, your Hanscom Direct Connect Certificate will renew to next longest term offered.) You can prevent renewal if you mail notice to us at least 30 calendar days before maturity. See account terms for additional information.
